

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, MyHopeRadio.com has come to recognize the invaluable position of our music ministers in our churches and lives and that through leadership and servitude, they lead us into deeper worship of our Savior, Jesus Christ; and

WHEREAS, We recognize the role of “music minister” calls for much more than a mere knowledge of music theory, but also an understanding of how music affects the mind and the soul of individuals and the wisdom to use this understanding to create an atmosphere of worship; and

WHEREAS, We recognize the responsibility of leading churches into unified worship, joining the individual’s worship experience together with the body of Christ, thus creating an atmosphere dedicated and focused on God; and

WHEREAS, We recognize the effort and quality put forth by our music ministers, the time and effort hidden from sight, the hours of practice, the days of preparation, and the moments where improvisation is the only option;

NOW, THEREFORE, be it resolved, that MyHopeRadio.com hereby proclaims April 26, 2020, to be

Music Minister Appreciation Day

